

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement 2020

Introduction

This Statement is made pursuant to Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. Modern slavery takes various forms, including slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labor and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

Trends towards globalization mean that it is increasingly common for businesses to source their goods and services from different countries, making visibility in the supply chain more challenging. Globalization has created advantages for businesses and individuals alike, creating opportunities for unscrupulous businesses to exploit vulnerable people by coercing them into becoming victims of human trafficking and slavery.

People that profit from modern slavery try hard to ensure that their criminal activities are not discovered and consequently, identifying such activities can be extremely difficult. Ivanti, Inc. is a global provider of software and services, and is headquartered in Salt Lake City, Utah. This statement is made by Ivanti, Inc. and each of its subsidiaries that are required to make such a statement in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act.

Our Business

Ivanti is a global supplier of Security, Unified Endpoint Manager, Supply Chain, and IT Asset Management software. Information concerning products can be found on www.Ivanti.com.

Ivanti is committed to high standards of corporate governance, and a key element of this is managing the business in a socially responsible way. Ivanti aims to employ the highest ethical and professional standards as we comply with local laws and regulations applicable to our business. As such, Ivanti is committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities and its supply chains. This commitment to ethical and professional behavior is enforced and emphasized in our company policies and training programs. We expect the parties with whom we engage, such as our suppliers and customers, to behave in a similar manner.

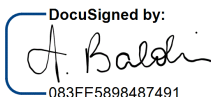

Our Approach

Due to the nature of our business, we assess that there is very low risk of slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains. However, we aim to regularly review the effectiveness of our policies and procedures that we have in place. It is Ivanti's policy to encourage employees, when they reasonably believe that questionable practices are occurring, to report those concerns immediately. All reports are taken seriously and are promptly investigated.

This Statement has been approved by our Board of Directors, who will review and update it as necessary on an annual basis.
